

429 River Lane, Amasa, Michigan 49903 • (906) 822-7889

White Water Associates is Seeking Qualified Candidates

Job Title: Assistant Field Tech-Part time/Internship

WWA conducts projects that involve surveys for aquatic plants, aquatic invasive species, water quality measurement and sampling, amphibians, birds, reptiles, mussels, fish, and mammals. Fieldwork variously includes snorkeling, GIS, GPS, and identification of native and nonnative plants, animals, and aquatic macroinvertebrates.

Key Responsibilities:

- Assist staff Biologists with field preparation of supplies and tools.
- Assist staff Biologists with performing surveys.
- Data input and analysis

Required Skills and Qualifications:

- At minimum a High School Diploma and an interest in field biology
- Physical requirements of the position- work in environmental conditions that sometimes include heat, wind, rain, cold, and/or biting insects. The working hours may also extend past a traditional work day.
- Ability to follow instructions.
- Strong communication and interpersonal skills to collaborate effectively with team members.

Company Overview:

White Water Associates, Inc. (WWA) is an analytical laboratory and environmental consulting firm with over thirty-five years of experience. With offices and laboratories located in Michigan's Upper Peninsula and Kewaunee, Wisconsin. White Water has a diverse client base including municipalities, private and public firms along private homeowners. White Water is a woman-owned, small business and is certified as a Disadvantaged Business Enterprise (DBE) and Historically Underutilized Business Zone (HUB).

www.white-water-associates.com

Send resumes and a cover letter to Sally.Hedtke@white-water-associates.com Closing date is 4/19/2024.